

Standard modules

A standard module provides algorithms which are optimized for a specific task. The focus is on simple to more complex tasks.